

Consumerist society

Task 1:

How would you define a consumerist society? What were consumer habits like in the past, how have they changed, and what might they look like in 50 years' time?

Task 2:

Books, clothes, even food – today, you can buy everything online. What is your opinion – would you describe this trend as positive? Or might it also have some negative consequences? Would you ever do all your shopping online? Discuss the pros and cons of online shopping.
